LEARNER CODE OF CONDUCT / 'ANNEX B' (On Campus and Industry Experiential training)

I dutifully and honourably pledge to respect The Learner Code of Conduct at all times and that I will adhere to the following rules and regulations:

The following sets out the rules and regulations to which Learners pledge to adhere to at Limpopo Chefs Academy:

ON- CAMPUS

1. Punctuality

Lectures commence strictly as per roster. Ensure that you arrive at least 15 minutes prior to lecturers/ shifts commencing. If you arrive late you will be asked to leave if you did not inform your relevant lecturer you will be late. NO excuses of late coming will be excepted when writing tests or exams.

2. Absence due to illness

This should be reported to Chef Kelly/ Chef Claudia by 8:00 on the day of absence. When returning to school, a medical certificate MUST be presented. If no medical certificate is presented you will be marked absent and on test/ practical days, you will be charged accordingly.

3. Absence due to circumstance

If you are absent/late due to circumstances beyond your control, you need to inform Chef Kelly 082 336 4894 / Chef Claudia immediately via whatsapp. This information will be saved. Management discretion will apply.

4. You will be required to wear the correct uniform as per your induction booklet. It should also be clean and ironed. Not wearing the correct uniform, (shoes and name badge included) you will be asked to leave.

5. For theory classes, you must bring the appropriate handouts/ homework for the lesson. A pen, pencil, ruler, eraser, calculator, diary and notebook.

6. When cooking, you are required to bring a full, CLEAN knife set with you. The school will not supply you with markers to label your prep. Bring a marker and pen to these classes.

7. Maintain a clean station and work area throughout the day. Clean as you go. Leave the classrooms as you found them, chairs and desks neatly arranged and no litter left behind.

8. Every learner must exercise the highest health and hygiene practices. Always wash your hands with soap and water.

9. No foul language will be tolerated. No conversations pertaining to religion, race or politics will be tolerated. Treat your peers with respect.

10. No excessive jewellery or make-up allowed.
